I would like to nominate Elaine Poole and Heather Papworth of D.I.S.C Newquay, for the Newquay Town Council's Community Award Scheme. Both the group and the two ladies who are its founders do a wonderful job for the homeless in Newquay.

These two ladies have worked tirelessly for several years feeding and taking care of vulnerable / homeless in Newquay. They initially helped the soup kitchen at the Beacon of Light Church. They then formed the charity DISC operating from various facilities in the town, and in addition going into the streets giving food and drink to the homeless. They now operate weekly at St Michaels Church feeding the homeless / vulnerable with food and clothing. They also liaise with housing organisations assisting in providing accommodation. They operate on a voluntary basis.
