Criteria for Awards

The awards are for those who make an outstanding contribution to the community. They recognise an individual or community and voluntary groups who have made a positive difference to the local community; or to people who make an extra effort to bring the community together; or those who go out of their ways to help others or a charity in their own time. In the case of the Young Person Award the upper age limit is 18 years of age.

Nominations can be submitted for a wide range of endeavors including:

- Community Involvement - such as delivering an innovation or idea that makes a profound impact in aid of the community.
- Providing extraordinary service to the Community - Going the extra mile.
- Selfless actions that affect/involve others to improve the quality of life.
- An outstanding achievement – for example, an act of bravery.
- Gained exceptional recognition for Newquay at Regional/National level.
- Outstanding achievement in their field - such as sports or culture.
- Significantly improving the environment of the town.
