For the last few years Raj has opened the doors of his guest house to provide a Christmas Day celebration for those in need on Christmas Day 2017. 26 people were prepared with showers, haircuts, and given a delicious xmas lunch and presents as well as food to take away with them for the evening.

Each year this event gets bigger and better with 2017 doubling in size all thanks to Raj's original idea and big heart which brings Newquay together as a community with offers of volunteers, support and fundraising all corners.
